

A<sup>o</sup>. 1942.

N<sup>o</sup>. 14.

PUBLICATIEBLAD.

BESCHIKKING van den 24sten Januari 1942 no. 542 houdende bepaling van den dag van opkomst voor eerste oefening van de schutterplichtigen van de jaarklasse 1923, alsmede van hen, die uitstel hebben gehad, totdat de jaarklasse 1923 onder de wapenen geroepen wordt.

DE GOUVERNEUR van Curaçao,

Gelezen het schrijven dd. 21 Januari 1942 no. 318 van den Algemeen Militair Commandant;

Gelet op het bepaalde sub 2o. van de Gouvernementsbeschikking van den 2den October 1941 no. 5742 (P. B. 1941 no. 117);

HEEFT GOEDGEVONDEN :

te bepalen:

- 1o. dat de eerste oefening van de schutterplichtigen van de jaarklasse 1923, alsmede van hen, die uitstel hebben gehad, totdat de jaarklasse 1923 onder de wapenen geroepen wordt, zal aanvangen op den 2den Maart 1942;
- 2o. dat deze beschikking in het Publicatieblad zal worden opgenomen en dat zij bovendien door aanplakking op de eilanden Aruba en Curaçao algemeen bekend gemaakt zal worden.

Willemstad, den 24sten Januari 1942.

De Gouverneur voornoemd,

Bij afwezigheid,

SÜTHOFF.

Uitgegeven den 28sten Januari 1942.

De gouvernements-secretaris,
GRONEMEIJER.

N. 14

A. 1942

PUBLICATIENBLAD

THE KING'S LETTER TO THE PARLIAMENT, 1942, is the first of the series of letters which the King has written to the Houses of Parliament since the outbreak of the war. It is a letter of great importance, and it is one which every citizen should read and understand.

THE KING'S LETTER TO THE PARLIAMENT, 1942, is a letter of great importance, and it is one which every citizen should read and understand. It is a letter which is full of wisdom and courage, and it is a letter which is full of hope and faith.

THE KING'S LETTER TO THE PARLIAMENT, 1942, is a letter of great importance, and it is one which every citizen should read and understand. It is a letter which is full of wisdom and courage, and it is a letter which is full of hope and faith. It is a letter which is full of the spirit of the British people, and it is a letter which is full of the spirit of the British Empire.

THE KING'S LETTER TO THE PARLIAMENT, 1942, is a letter of great importance, and it is one which every citizen should read and understand. It is a letter which is full of wisdom and courage, and it is a letter which is full of hope and faith. It is a letter which is full of the spirit of the British people, and it is a letter which is full of the spirit of the British Empire.

THE KING'S LETTER TO THE PARLIAMENT, 1942, is a letter of great importance, and it is one which every citizen should read and understand. It is a letter which is full of wisdom and courage, and it is a letter which is full of hope and faith. It is a letter which is full of the spirit of the British people, and it is a letter which is full of the spirit of the British Empire.